About Leo Groups

Greetings from Leo Groups, your reliable wholesaler and dealer of excellent basa and tilapia fish. Situated in the centre of Krishna, Andhra Pradesh, we take great pleasure in bringing the finest fish from our nearby seas directly to your table. The only thing that rivals our love of seafood is our dedication to excellence.

Our Story

Leo Groups began with a modest goal: to supply our community with fish of the highest calibre. Our founders have always had a deep love for fishing; they were born and reared in Krishna. Thanks to our commitment and our clients' confidence, what started as a modest family business has developed into a top supplier. We make an effort to preserve our honesty principles every day.

Why Choose Us?

We at Leo Groups think that freshness has great power. We purchase our basa and tilapia from nearby fishermen who share our dedication to excellence. This guarantees that each fish you get is fresh. We strive hard to win your trust because we recognise how important it is to our business. You select excellence when you choose us.

Our Commitment to Sustainability

For us, sustainability is a way of life, not simply a catchphrase. To maintain the long-term health of our seas, we collaborate with regional fishermen who employ sustainable fishing methods. We never cut corners when it comes to the future of our fish because of our dedication to the environment. You are assisting a company that puts the health of our world and community first by selecting Leo Groups.
