About Malhar Agro Products

Malhar Agro Products was created in 2018 to become a revolutionary Manufacturer and Supplier company of extremely effective Fly Trap, Sticky Trap, Feromone Lure, Solar Light Trap, and many other products. We are located in Pune, Maharashtra, India.

Because of our team leaders' great subject knowledge, we have been able to develop a profitable business that allows us to produce a diverse range of high-quality items, featuring the latest products.

Our company was established with the goal of providing quality at a reasonable price, and our dedicated team is working hard to achieve that goal by presenting a highly beneficial product line with features such as user-friendly operation, nontoxic characteristics, low energy consumption, and maintenance-free longevity.

Quality Assurance with ISO 9001:2015 certified company:

Our business operations are founded on the fundamental conviction in quality assurance. We make every effort to earn our clients' trust and endeavour to uphold the ideals of openness and integrity. Our quality control section is in charge of setting high standards for our product line.

Our Team:

We are pleased with our brilliant individuals that are dedicated to achieving the firm's goals. The team members are well-versed in their respective fields. Because our market performance is contingent on the collective forces of these teammates, we provide the necessary training to improve their understanding and keep them up to date on the current promotional activities.

The team is made up of - Engineers, technologists, and quality inspectors
