About SRTEC Automation

SRTEC Automation, founded in 2012 by Ms. Sonia Paul, is dedicated to providing cutting-edge safety, security, and automatic solutions to clients, ensuring optimal levels of protection and convenience. Based in Kolkata, our company operates with a customer-centric approach, offering a diverse range of products tailored to meet various security applications and solutions.

As a young and dynamic Indian firm, SRTEC Automation specializes in the development and production of automatic systems for gates, doors, barriers, and everyday electrical and electronic equipment for both home and office environments. Our in-house research, development, and manufacturing facility in Kolkata enable us to fabricate customized gates, doors, and industrial products to meet specific requirements and designs.

Our success is attributed to our dedicated team of highly qualified and skilled professionals who serve as the robust backbone of our operations. With a focus on client needs, we employ a unique management style to ensure alignment with customer requirements. Partnering with manufacturers from the USA, Italy, and China, we ensure the delivery of state-of-the-art technology products that meet the highest quality standards.

At SRTEC Automation, our mission is to exceed customer expectations through innovative ideas, research, development, proper inspection, and design consulting services. We strive to provide highly personalized service and innovative solutions to our clients, accompanied by top-notch service support.

Our vision is to create a remarkable service experience by dedicating ourselves to serving our clients with unwavering commitment and providing an enjoyable work environment for our employees. We aim for sustainable growth that benefits all stakeholders.

SRTEC Automation prioritizes client satisfaction, ensuring professional solutions tailored to their needs. We also value our employees, encouraging them to develop their careers in an open, honest, and motivating environment.

SRTEC Automation

With a focus on expansion, we collaborate with various associates, including interiors, architects, consultants, builders, engineers, and professionals, catering to clients in North East India and beyond. Our commitment to quality, customer satisfaction, safety, and reliability makes SRTEC Automation the preferred choice for automated solutions.

Our streamlined working process involves placing orders seamlessly, professional installation by experienced professionals, and enjoying the best quality service without worries.
